

WHERE ANCIENT STEPS FIND MODERN STAGES

Absolutely gorgeous!
--Carlos Amezcua, KTLA Channel 5

View

Pacifico Dance Company is a Los Angeles-based ensemble dedicated to preserving and reimagining the rich traditions of Mexican folklórico through dynamic, theatrical performances. The company blends rigorous technique, live and recorded music, and detailed costuming to bring Mexico's diverse regions and women-centered narratives to the contemporary stage.

About Us

Cadence Arts Network, Inc
rachel@cadencearts.com

Social Media

PROGRAMS OFFERED

Flexible formats for presenter calendars, audience goals, and venue size

View Rider

“... Pacifico Dance Company reminds us – through every step, sweep, and story in their intricately woven choreography – that culture is a lifeline. Their art doesn’t just preserve tradition; it restores our collective heartbeat.”

~Kajsa Thuresson-Frary, McCallum Theatre, Vice President – Education

“So, so beautiful! The audience was rapt and participating the entire time...such a vibrant and wide array of dance and storytelling through movement”
~Benina Stern, Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts

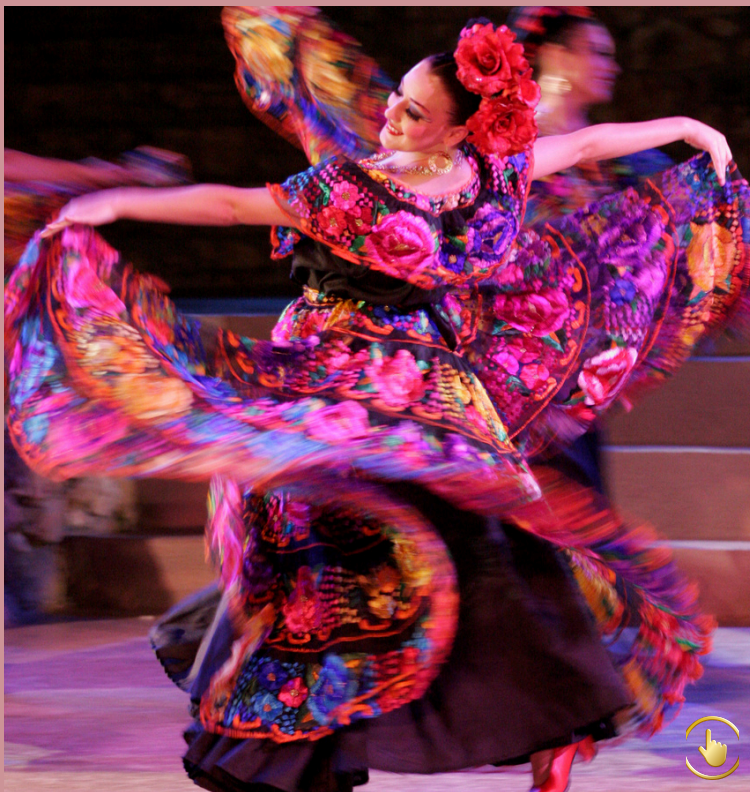

CURRENT PROGRAMS/REPERTORY HIGHLIGHTS

Pacifico Dance Company offers full-length concert programs and modular suites suitable for theatres, festivals, and cultural events. Programs can be adapted for a range of venues and audiences, including family-oriented performances and school presentations.

Sample offerings:

- Full-evening concert featuring multiple regional suites from across Mexico
- Thematic programs highlightin women’s stories and Indigenous traditions
- Educational performances for K-12 audiences with narration and Q & A

Pacífico Dance Company preserves and reimagines the dances, music, and stories of Mexico as a living contemporary art form that strengthens cultural identity and belonging, inviting diverse audiences to experience Mexican heritage as a source of joy, dialogue, and connection.

EDUCATION AND PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

Pacífico Dance Company shares Mexican dance and culture with students and communities through performances, school assemblies, and hands-on workshops. Our education programs center on cultural pride, intergenerational learning, and representation.

View Rider

Education Partners have included:
ASU Gammage, McCallum Theatre, Segerstrom
Center for the Arts, The Music Center, The Wallis, Ford Theatres, Walt Disney Concert Hall, and more.

PACIFICO
DANCE COMPANY

Select Performance Highlights

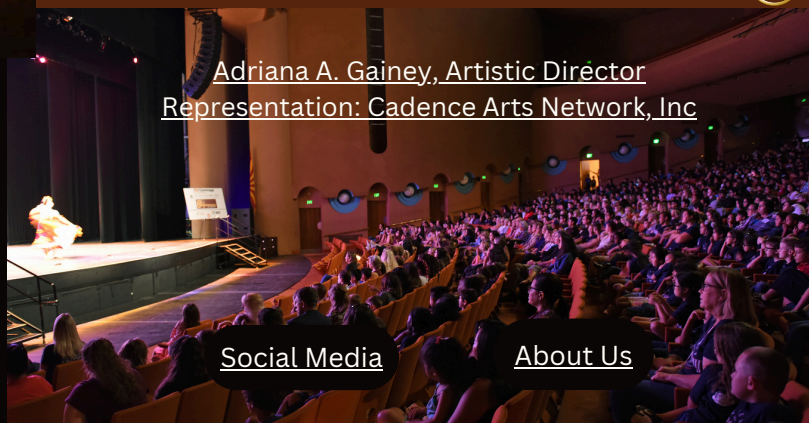

- Cerritos Center for the Performing Arts
- McCallum Theatre, Palm Desert
- Smother's Theatre, Malibu
- Mondavi Center, Davis
- Eccles Theatre, Utah
- The Kennedy Center, Washington DC
- Luckman Fine Arts Complex, Los Angeles

Education & Community Programs

- K-12 school assemblies (30-50 minutes, with narration and Q & A)
- Folklórico technique workshops (beginner-advanced)
- Community performances and family engagement events

Adriana A. Gainey, Artistic Director
Representation: Cadence Arts Network, Inc

Social Media

About Us